

ESTABLISHED 1861

CLARKSBURG, W. VA., MONDAY, JULY 8, 1912.

PRICE TWO CENTS

TAFT'S CAMPAIGN BEING ORGANIZED

When Nine National Committeemen Meet Taft at the White House.

AND HAVE LUNCHEON

Daugherty of Ohio is Mentioned Most for National Chairmanship.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Actual organization of President Taft's campaign began today, when nine members of the Republican national committee acting as a sub-committee met the president at the White House, where they were entertained at a luncheon and they discussed the appointment of a national chairman.

The name of Harry M. Daugherty, of Ohio, figured most prominently among the possible selections when the committeemen went to meet the president.

William Barnes, Jr., of New York, conferred with the president and Secretary Hilles while the committeemen were gathering.

CRUGER SMITH

Leaves His Property at Various Points to Some of His Relatives.

M. B. Davis qualified Monday before the county court as administrator of the estate of Nancy C. Davis with bond at $200 and Frank B. Thoyts surety.

A certified copy of the will of the late Cruger W. Smith, a former resident of this county but residing at Charles Town at the time of his death, was presented for recordation. Mr. Smith left his house and lots at Charles Town and his interest in twenty-six acres of oil and gas territory in the county to Flora M. Smith, his wife, her life time, and at the time of her death, the same are to go to the heirs of Mary M. Gore. D. Anna Miller is given a house and lots in Washington, D. C., while another house and lot there are to be sold and the proceeds thereof after inheritance taxes are paid are to go to Marshall W. Rust and Flora C. Matiele. Personal property is also distributed by the will.

The sheriff's annual settlement which will take several days was begun.

ROYALISTS

Continue to Attempt to Restore the Portuguese Monarchy.

LISBON PORT, July 8.—Sporadic royalist attempts with a view to restoring the Portuguese monarchy continue in northern Portugal. The government remains in session day and night and troops and ships are being rushed to the North.

YOUNG MAN JAILED.

Daniel Faulkner, a young man of Northview has been sent to jail by Justice G. H. Gordon in default of furnishing a peace bond required at the conclusion of a hearing on a charge of threatening his father, John Faulkner.

LAWN FETE.

A lawn fete will be given Tuesday evening at the home of J. L. Ruffin, colored, at 130 Bridge street for the benefit of Trinity Memorial church parsonage. All friends of the church are invited to attend.

WARRANT WITHDRAWN.

A warrant against Fred Kupfer, charging him with assaulting and beating Mrs. Abner Winters Saturday night at Union Heights, was withdrawn Monday in Justice Gordon's court and Kupfer was released from custody. The case was an outcome of a neighborhood quarrel.

MORMONS MOBILIZE.

AUGUA PRIETA, Mexico, July 8.—Americans of the Mormon colonies at Colonia Morelos and Colonia Oaxaca are mobilizing to defend their property against rebel bands. A rebel vanguard is approaching Morelos from Casas Grandes.

COUPLE

Deported by the Mayor in Default of Paying Fines for Drunkenness

No arrests were made Sunday by city policemen and the usual session of police court was not held this morning.

At Sunday morning's session of the court, which was conducted by Mayor Frank R. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Trough were convicted of street drunkenness and were given twelve hours in which to leave the city. Charles Jackson, a negro, was sentenced to serve ten days in jail in default of paying a fine of $10 and costs for disorderly conduct. Two men paid fines of $3 and costs for street drunkenness and were released.

WILSONBURG DEFEATED.

The Adamston baseball team defeated the Wilsonburg team in a well played game of baseball at Wilsonburg Sunday afternoon. The score: Adamston..... 7 3 2 Wilsonburg..... 2 3 6 Batteries—Adamston, James Louchery and McCarty; Wilsonburg, Beverage and Herdman.

THREE MURDERERS

Are Put to Death in Quick Succession in Sing Sing Prison

OSSENING, N. Y., July 8.—Giuseppe Crotti, George Williams and Santa Zanza were put to death in quick succession in the Sing Sing prison this morning, each having been convicted of murder. Zanza, a black, was carried to the chair.

SISTERS OF POPE PIUS VISIT HIM AT THE VATICAN; PONTIFF PUTS ASIDE OFFICIAL CARES TO BE WITH MEMBERS OF FAMILY

The accompanying photograph shows the three sisters of Pope Pius X, and his niece Olga (standing up) after their recent visit to the Pontiff at Rome. The Pope always looks forward with great joy to the presence of members of his family, and puts aside many of the cares of his office when they come to visit him.

UGLY CHARGE

Is Preferred Against a Man Named Cross By a Weston Girl.

WESTON, July 8.—W. B. Cross, well dressed, who presents a good appearance, was arrested Saturday night for committing assault upon Sona Meyers, aged 18 years.

Miss Meyers was found on the road side, just east of Weston, after dark, in an unconscious condition, by Edward McCall, who was enroute home from the oil fields in his automobile.

Mr. McCall brought Miss Meyers to Weston where she swore out a warrant, charging Cross with criminal assault, and alleging he forced her to accompany him.

A medical examination proved her charge to be true. Cross was held in custody by Justice A. C. Hughes without bond. Cross claims his home is at Clarksburg.

OFFICERS

Of Window Glass Manufacturers for the Year are Announced.

As noted by the Glassworker, of Pittsburg, the National Association of Window Glass Manufacturers has chosen officers, a wage committee and directors as follows for the year:

Officers—O. C. Teague, secretary of the Utica Glass Company, president; J. H. Brewster, Crescent Window Glass Company, Weston, W. Va., vice president; John R. Johnson, secretary and treasurer, the latter being re-elected. The former president and vice president were G. W. Morenus, of Kane, Pa.; and C. P. Cole, of Lancaster, O.

Wage committee—Frank J. Bastin, secretary and manager of the Blackford Window Glass Company, Vincennes, Ind.; John Koblegard, president of the West Fork Glass Company, Clarksburg, W. Va.; J. Scott Walker, secretary and treasurer of Smithport Glass Company, Smithport, Pa.; James Grant, secretary and manager Crescent Window Glass Company, Weston, W. Va.; and Charles F. Lutes, president of the Fredonia Window Glass Company, Fredonia, Kan.

Directors—H. R. Hilton, T. W. Camp, M. J. Healey, J. J. Quaintance, W. L. Graham, J. H. Brewster, Felix Steinberg, John Koblegard, George A. Schlossstein, C. F. Lutes, H. J. Walters and Frank Bostock.

DAVIS CHOSEN

As One of the Managers of the Impeachment Case Against Archbald.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 8.—The Clayton impeachment resolution in the case against Robert W. Archbald of the United States Commerce Court was presented to the House today but it went over until tomorrow.

John W. Davis, congressman from the First West Virginia district is one of seven lawyers of the House selected by the judiciary committee to manage the proceedings and his selection will be confirmed tomorrow.

The investigation which resulted in the impeachment proceedings being instituted was conducted for several weeks by the House committee on the judiciary. These managers will act as the prosecuting lawyers for the House in the proceedings before the Senate and Mr. Davis is understood to have been selected to look after all constitutional questions which may arise in the proceedings.

TO SERVE SIX MONTHS.

Endi Babic, a foreign coal miner, was brought to the county jail Monday afternoon from Enterprise to serve a sentence of six months, imposed by Justice G. W. Harrison, of that place, for carrying steel knuckles in violation of the anti-weapon statute.

TEACHERS LISTEN TO TIMELY TALKS

WOMEN FINED

After Squad of Officers Chase Them and Several Men Companions.

Immediately following the making of a complaint Saturday evening in Justice G. H. Gordon's court that a crowd of men and women were deporting themselves in disorderly manner in Glen Elk No. 2, Constables William Post and Thomas R. Kearns and Frank McNemar, a traction officer, made a flying trip to that part of the city and made an exciting chase after the disturbers. Several men in the party could run faster than the officers and made their escape, but two women were overtaken and placed under arrest. They gave their names as Edna Scott and Minnie Gato.

In the justice's court shortly afterward, the women were convicted of disorderly conduct and were required to pay fines and costs amounting to $6.60 each. They paid the required amounts and were released.

PROHIBITION

Party Leaders are Tired of the Name of Their National Party.

ATLANTIC CITY, July 8.—Maintaining that the Prohibition party is the original progressive party, a determined effort will be made by the leaders to change the name of the national convention which opens here Wednesday. Delegates arrived today by the hundreds. The national committee will meet tonight when plans for the temporary organization will be made.

By Prominent Educators at Their Annual National Convention.

RURAL SCHOOL LIFE

And Hygiene as Well as Music Are the Chief Topics Discussed.

CHICAGO, July 8.—Before the department of music of the National Education Association here today, Will Earhart, of Richmond, Ind., supervisor of music, made an address on "The High School Course Which was Adopted by the Music Supervisors' National Conference." In summarizing the provisions of the course, attention was directed especially to the following:

- (a) The demand made in the report that all high schools offer some music work, and that this be fully credited.
- (b) That something more than chorus practice be universally offered.
- (c) That ensemble instrumental practice be recognized as co-ordinate with chorus practice.
- (d) That advanced studies, such as harmony and musical appreciation, be adopted.

Other speakers today were David Jordan, president of Leland Stanford University of California, on "Eugenics"; George E. Dawson, of Henry Barnard School, Hartford, Conn.; Arnold L. Gesell, of Yale University; and William A. McKeever, of the Kansas Agricultural College.

JOHN McDONOUGH

Dies at Home on Mulberry Street After a Long Illness.

John McDonough, aged 50 years, died at his home on Mulberry street Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock of a complication of diseases. He is survived by a widow, four brothers, a sister and six children. The brothers are James and Timothy, of Ft. Worth, Tex.; Peter, of Douglas, Ariz.; and James of Brooklyn, N. Y.; the sister is Miss Margaret, of Ft. Worth. The children are Margaret, John, Bernard, Luke, James and Austin, all living at home.

The funeral will be held Wednesday morning in the church of the Immaculate Conception and the burial will follow in the Holy Cross cemetery.

TO PROBE CONDITIONS.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Secretary of the Treasury MacVeagh, who returned today from a vacation, will undertake to learn immediately the exact conditions among officials of the treasury department. There will be no formal investigation, but the secretary intends to learn whether high officials mentioned in the Andrew resignation letter are dissatisfied.

BRISTOW FOR TEDDY.

EMPORIA, Kan., July 8.—United States Senator Joseph L. Bristow has formally declared for Theodore Roosevelt for president in a letter to William Allen White, Roosevelt national committeeman, according to announcements here today. He declares that the nomination of Taft was "fraudulent."

ELKS' REUNION.

PORTLAND, Ore., July 8.—The Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks today began its forty-eighth grand lodge session and twenty-sixth annual reunion of the brotherhood here.

WILL NOT GO.

SEA GIRT, July 8.—Governor Wilson amended his declaration of last night today with the positive statement that he would not go to Chicago to attend the meeting of the Democratic national committee. "I find it is not customary," he said.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET.

CHICAGO, July 8.—July wheat closed 1.03-7.8; corn 70.2-3, oats 41.5-8.

Arthur L. Garford, Of Elyria, O., who was one of the leaders of the Roosevelt forces during the presidential primary campaign. Garford was promised the governorship of Ohio on the Republican ticket by leading Ohio politicians if he would agree to make an unqualified endorsement of Taft. He refused to endorse the president in that way. He did not get it.

END LIFE

Does a Wealthy Lewis County Farmer With a Shotgun.

WESTON, July 8.—Clay Hersian, wealthy farmer, residing near Berlin, was seen going to the woods early Saturday morning with his shotgun. Not returning at noon a search was made, and his body was found near a log. He had shot himself, lacerating his chest and bowels. It is thought to be a case of suicide, as Hersian was involved in a love affair.

ONLY EVIDENCE

Against Senator Lorimer is That of White, a Bribe Taker.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Senator Dillingham continued his defense of Senator Lorimer today when the Senate resumed consideration of the case. He declared that the only evidence against Lorimer was that of Charles A. White, author of the original charges, who, he asserted, entered the legislature for the purpose of accepting bribes.

Mrs. Woodrow Wilson.

BUILDING Y.

C. P. Keeley and Company, contractors, began the construction of a Y in Main street at Fourth Monday morning for the local traction company, so that the Mt. Clare car will not have to turn.

THOUSANDS

Of Delegates and Members at Annual National Convention of Educators.

CHICAGO, July 8.—Several thousand delegates and members of the National Education Association had reached Chicago today for the opening of its fiftieth annual convention which convened in the Auditorium at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.

CAMORRO TRIAL

Is Coming to An End and Troops and Police are Increased.

VITERBO, Italy, July 8.—Reinforcements of troops and police have arrived here to preserve order in the belief that the Camorro trial will end today. The judge continued summing up, taking pains to explain to the jury each of the 114 questions it must consider.

A verdict was handed down later in the day, nine of the accused persons being declared guilty of murder and the remainder guilty of belonging to a criminal association.